

If you ever wanted to own really great wine, this is your opportunity...

On November 10th Francos Wine Merchants cornered the 2006 Maison Louis Jadot market.

The highly successful but ill-timed vintage arrived on the heels of the blockbuster 2005 vintage. Widely regarded as Burgundy's finest, the '05s were snapped up by collectors in an unprecedented fashion. The '06 vintage showed up just as the economy came under pressure. Nervous retailers and restaurants across the country canceled their orders, and the wine was left to languish in warehouses across the country. Francos, one of the few retailers who did honor their 2006 commitment, negotiated a buyout for all remaining stock in the U.S.

Why did we do this?

1. If the 2005 hadn't preceded it, 2006 would have been acclaimed as one of Burgundy's finer efforts such as the classes of '96, '99, and '02.
2. 2006 offers far more quality to the consumer than 2007 and now with the lower price, much greater value.

3. With the negotiated buyout price Francos will be offering the wines at prices not seen since the 2002 vintage.

Whether put down for holidays and special occasions, given as a gift or for starting a collection, we are offering the chance to purchase great wines at prices considered past history. Some wines are limited to only a few cases but others are in good supply.
