

Krug Grand Cuvee

As we toast the holidays, why not do it in "Grand" style. The exquisite quality of Krug Grand Cuvee places it among Champagne's elite. Its gleaming gold color and expansive bouquet surround toasty flavors of vanilla cream, gentle spices and candied fruit. It is at once power and vivacity beaded and shimmering in a glass. Enjoy the holidays in luxury this year. $129.99

2009 Louis Jadot Beanne "Clos de Ursules"

The fortune laden '09 Burgundy vintage is loaded with superstars, and savvy players need to know where the value exists. Jadot's Beanne "Clos des Ursules" is the best pure play in this amazing portfolio. Showing a redolence of black fruits and aged beef while delivering textbook Beanne flavors of blueberries and game, it is a wine dripping in character. Though difficult to resist now, if one were patient, it would be a fabulous holiday wine for years to come. $58.99

2007 Domaine Carneros

The holiday revolving door of family and friends requires a sparkling wine that is kind to both the palate and pocketbook. Owned and produced by Taittinger, it offers the cachet we find so welcoming this time of year. With aromas of citrus and spice and its trademark extended creamy finish, Domaine Carneros is a remarkably consistent effort. $20.99

2001 Quinta de Roriz Vintage Port

A winter's eve by the hearth is even more relaxing with a glass of vintage port. The quality of this old-world effort is sure to please the cognoscenti, and the price is great too. Heady aromas of herbs and cassis blend seamlessly with lengthy flavors of grapes and berries, gripping the palate in classic style. Regarded as one of the finest properties in the Douro, Quinta de Roriz was acquired by the Symington Group in 2009. $49.99
