

2010 Cloudy Bay Sauvignon Blanc

The highly celebrated standard bearer for New Zealand wine, Cloudy Bay Sauvignon Blanc is just the ticket when it's lobsters in the pot. One of Marlborough's five original vineyards, Cloudy Bay SB delivers vibrant aromatics and zesty flavors of blood orange, gooseberry and minerals, perfectly suited for summer shellfish menus and always fabulous as an aperitif. $21.99

2007 Clos du Val Cabernet

With steaks on the grill and Clos du Val in the glass life gets good very quickly. Nothing beats the 2007 vintage in Napa Valley and when it comes to value Clos du Val is the sweetheart everyone brings home to mom. With enticing aromas of spice and black fruit that rotate seamlessly into lengthy coriander and cassis flavors, this is one wine that will provide grilling pleasure all season. $24.99

2009 Jadot Beaujolais Villages

For purely delicious fruit nothing is more delightful than this easy drinking gateway effort from the Jadot portfolio. Taking advantage of 2009's superb weather conditions, this wine delivers value in spades and would be a welcome guest at any backyard cookout. Plump, ripe and jolly as an elf, everything is present at a price that can't be beat. $9.99

2009 Jadot Pouilly Fuissé

Deep in the southern regions of Burgundy the Maconnais district is still producing the same wonderful wines that it has for centuries. The steep slopes in the village of Fuissé gives us the sun-laden Chardonnay grapes for this classic effort, which bears such enormous appeal. A crisply styled wine with catching hints of freshly cut flowers and brisk citrus nuances, it carries the summer theme as much as the solstice itself. $18.99
