

2008 Shafer Red Shoulder Ranch Chardonnay

Those on the lookout for Chardonnay reflecting the broader strokes of the Napa influence hit the bull's eye right here with one of the biggest names in the Napa Valley. The 2008 Red Shoulder Ranch carries a delicious mid-weight frame with well-defined tropical and citrus fruit nuances. With 25% of the juice fermented in stainless steel structure and definition is added to the glowing richness of the wine's character. A Napa classic at a great price. $35.99

2006 Rombauer Cabernet

Choosing a full flavored Napa Cabernet to accompany New York Strips on the grill is a chore that never lacks for a shortage of volunteers. For those whose Cabernet preference leans towards the more muscular this 2006 Rombauer certainly does the trick. Packed with solid blackfruit and cassis flavors, there is plenty of structure present to handle the flavor of flame-seared beef. While not confirmed that cowboys drink Cabernet while out on the range it is rumored that if they did then this would be it. $34.99

78th Annual Spring Sale

2009 Jadot Château des Jacques

It's always good fun for all when a wine strikes a chord with the consumer and we are grateful that we had one last shipment in the pipeline. The hot summer of 2009 ratcheted up grape intensity resulting in some stunning wines in Burgundy and the surrounding regions and this Moulin-a-Vent was one of the big winners. Boasting extraordinary depth and character, it is a perfect complement for spring/summer gatherings. Pair it with beef, lamb or salmon menus. The color is beautiful, a look and a sip will seal the deal. $19.99

2009 Clos des Allées Muscadet

A spectacular old vine Muscadet bottled sur-lie, Clos des Allées is a classic summer white when it comes to all things shellfish. A naturally produced effort from Pierre and Monique Luneau-Papin, it is what all Muscadet aspires to be. Crisply styled and almost saline to the palate, it is glorious accompaniment for all simply prepared seafood menus. With the vines on the estate ranging in age from 45-60 years old Clos des Allées is designated as Vieilles Vignes further underscoring the value and quality of this standard bearer of the summer season. $13.99
